A Pair of Jacks.
A strong Japanese boy wants a situation as cook.

Trenmor Oofma came down from Carson last evening.

The Grand Lodge, F. and A. M., meets at Carson to-day.

Paint your house with the best mixed paints. Sold by Lange & Schmitt.

Be on hand to draw to "A Pair of Jacks" next Thursday evening at the Opera House.

Why is the Truckee like one of our District Judges? Because its Rising.—(N. B. Copyright secured.)

Go to Lange & Schmitt for garden hose, garden tools, and agate ware. Largest stock in the city.

The general verdict is that F. Levy & Bros. are slaughtering Dry goods, and the ladies are taking advantage of it.

Ex-Governor J. H. Kinkaid and wife left yesterday morning for the East where they will remain during the Summer.

Ex-State Senator N. Westcott and wife arrived on Sunday from Denver and departed yesterday for their home at Oandalaria.

George Russell returned Sunday from Churchill county, and will leave in a day or two for Elko, where he will remain during the Summer.

State Treasurer George Taffy has so far improved that he will on Wednesday leave Carson, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Parrott, for Napa, California.

State Printer J. C. Harlow passed through here on Sunday, en route for Boston, where he goes as Nevada's representative to the Grand Lodge, A. O. U. W.

C. O. Downing left for San Francisco on Saturday and is expected back to-day. His absence will account for any shortcomings in this issue of the JOURNAL.

Uncle George Walker, of Winnemucca, and J. B. Fitzgerald, of Tuscarora, arrived here yesterday on their way to attend the Grand Lodge, F. and A. M., at Carson.

There will be racing at the track next Saturday. Purses will be hung up for roadsters, mile and repeat, and saddle horses, half mile and repeat. The contests are likely to be spirited affairs as some of our best local horses of those classes will be entered for the races. See ad. in this issue.

The McKinley bill was the chief topic of discussion in town yesterday. Many candidly admitted their inability to fathom its meaning sufficiently to judge of its probable effect, and the expressed sentiment was generally unfavorable to the measure.

The Gazette derides the JOURNAL's contentment with turkey without stuffing, in the absence of anything better. Our neighbor evidently prefers crow stuffed with wind. All the same, the JOURNAL will stick to its proposition of the great gallinaceous food bird of America—even without trimmings.

A petition circulated at Eureka for the appointment of Judge R. R. Bigelow to the vacant U. S. Judgeship was signed by nearly every person to whom it was presented. The same in Lander and Elko counties. Evidently in the great east Judge Bigelow is regarded as "the man for Galway."

Albert Saxton, the successful candidate before the Examiners at Carson for the West Point cadetship, left on the east-bound train yesterday morning for the National Military School, where, if he passes a successful examination before the constituted authorities, he will remain for the next four years.

Under the appropriate head will be noticed an event which occurred on the 6th inst. at Mount House, the "event" is of the feminine pattern and the well known former Renoite, James T. Davis is the author thereof. The JOURNAL extends to its old friend its heartiest congratulations, and hopes that the late arrival will live to grace and adorn the family home until called therefrom to assume the duties and responsibilities of presiding priestess at the Presidential mansion at Washington.

Grand Chapter, R. A. M.

The Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons met at Carson at 12 m. yesterday. The following officers were elected: M. E. John H. Habbs, Gold Hill, H. P.; R. E. Jason Berlingame, Eureka, Dep. H. P.; R. E. C. W. Hincheliffe, Austin, Elko; R. E. Albert Lackey, Gold Hill, Scribe; E. Allen C. Bragg, Reno, Treasurer; E. Chansey N. Noteware, Carson, Secretary; E. John W. Eckley, Virginia, Captain Host; E. Rufus Kinney, Reno, R. A. Captain. The installation will take place at 10:30 to-day.

PALACE DRY GOODS AND CARPET HOUSE.

Farce Comedy is Still in the Ring.

The public still clamors for the breezy riotousness of the break-neck entertainment which, plentifully attended with catchy music, goes under the title of farce-comedy. Only a comparatively few play-goers like their feelings harrowed up by the tearful drama, with its long-suffering heroine, its woe-impregnated hero, its diabolical villain and its irrepressible adventures, and still fewer are they who can grasp the high-class comedies with a sufficiently appreciative grip to squeeze real enjoyment out of them. But anybody can see the ludicrous and can laugh. Moreover, everybody likes to laugh. They will go to the Opera House next Thursday to laugh. A new farce-comedy is to be seen there called "A Pair of Jacks." It is by H. Gratian Donnelly, the author of "Natural Gas" and "Later On," and is said to be a great go. Mr. Donnelly, not desiring to overtax his intellectual powers, did not try to dig up something in the way of plot which would startle the folks by virtue of its originality. To be original is at once to be a failure as a writer of this kind of piece, so he took Shakespeare's idea of the "Two Drones" and applied it to modern hilarious fun making. The company giving the performance is attractive in make-up and capable in its possibilities of entertaining. H. G. Knowles is the Judge Jack and Wm. J. Russell is the Doctor Jack. Then there is Julius P. Witmark, the boy baritone, Sol Aiken, John P. Savage, Ernest Sinclair, Julia Aiken, Mollie Thompson, Mamie Taylor, Nina Hayward, Alice Greene, Winfield Johnson and Margery Thompson.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? It so send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. feb. 21-sw-ly

House Proceedings.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL.
WASHINGTON, May 9.—Representative McKee, of Arkansas, to-day introduced in the House a bill providing for the free coinage of silver and for the accumulation of a gold reserve of $100,000,000 and finally for the carrying of that reserve into the treasury as available assets.

Several district bills were passed and then the House took a recess.
It is reported that the chances are more than even that Reno will be selected as the place for holding the Democratic State Convention. In the words of Patrick Henry "Let it come."

or overeating, or the partaking of too rich and indigestible food, is a common cause of discomfort and suffering. To immediately relieve the stomach and bowels from such overloading, a full dose of Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets is the best remedy. They operate gently, yet thoroughly and without griping, nausea, or other unpleasant effects.
If the too free indulgence in such intemperate eating has deranged digestion, causing dyspepsia and biliousness, attended with a sense of fullness or bloating after eating, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in mouth in the morning, on arising, drowsiness after meals, indigestible feeling of food, or of impending calamity and hypochondria—then you need follow up the use of the "Pellets" with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. To tone up the stomach, invigorate the liver, and set all the processes of digestion at work. While curing indigestion, it purifies the blood, cleanses the system from all humors and blood-poisons—no matter of what name or nature, or from what cause arising. There is nothing similar to it in composition or approach to its results. Therefore, don't be cured and induced to take some substitute said to be just as good, that the dealer may make a larger profit.

Help Them Along.

Hoating's Cornet Band will give a series of picnics commencing next Sunday at Steamboat Springs for the purpose of raising funds to buy new uniforms. The boys should be liberally patronized and the good work helped along. A good band is a great help to a town and should be encouraged. Give the boys a good crowd at the first picnic.

Everybody is invited to the meeting at the Episcopal Church this evening, to listen to Miss Julia C. Emery, who will deliver an interesting discourse upon the work of missions.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Board no horse to be entered in any district race that has not been owned or kept in the district six (6) months prior to the day of the race, and any entry by any person of any disqualified horse shall be held liable for the entrance fee contracted, without right to compete for a purse, and shall be held liable to penalties prescribed by the National Association and Rules of the State Agricultural Society, and expulsion from the Association.

The several Republican County Central Committees will call aPrimary Election

—Of the People on—

SATURDAY, AUGUST 16, 1890,For the purpose of electing delegates to the said
State Convention, the Primary Election to be held will be in compliance with the laws of the State and the instructions of this Committee.The following list will be required of each and every voter at said Primary Elections:
"I am a citizen of this State and will support the nominees of the Republican party."The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this committee reaffirms the State and National Republican platform of 1888, including the declaration that "the Republican party is in favor of the use of both gold and silver as money"
and that it "condemns all efforts to demonetize silver."
Resolved, That the persistent neglect of Secretary Windom to increase the coinage of silver to the maximum of four million dollars per month
coupled with his attempt to influence Congressional legislation so as to perpetuate silver demonetization, is a shameful violation of the silver plank of the National Republican platform, and attack upon the rights and interests of the miners, farmers and workers of the land, and an act of party perfidy that should call for the retirement from the councils of an Administration which is pledged to help and not to hinder the demonetiza-tion of silver.

Resolved, That the Republican party of this State is in favor of free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver; that it holds to this principle as tenet of party faith and a test of party allegiance;
that it will permit of no abandonment or modification of this declaration; that let whoever will prove recalcitrant to the principle of bimetallism it will remain steadfast thereto, and that it invites all voters in Nevada who favor the repeal of the inequitable intermeddled law of 1876 by which silver was demonetized, and who desire the establishment of free and unlimited coinage as the law of the United States of America, to join in electing delegates to a Republican State Convention.
